Albany

Lookouts at both The Gap and Natural Bridge. The Gap walkway, a grated see through platform 40 metres above the ocean and extending 10 metres out from the cliff face, offers great views over the cliffs, ocean, and incoming waves. A small park fee is payable.

Albany is home to the National ANZAC Centre with views to King George Sound where 41,000 men and women left Australia aboard ships for the first World War.